Seminar on changes to the non-party campaigning rules

30 September 2014 from 10:30 - 12:30

The Electoral Commission is holding a seminar to explain changes to the rules on non-party campaigning.

Who should attend?

People and organisations who may campaign in the run up to the 2015 UK Parliamentary General Election and want an overview of the new rules to help them decide if they need to register with the Electoral Commission.

Why should I come along?

There are rules that govern people and organisations who campaign in the run up to elections but are not standing as a political party or candidate. These people are referred to as “non-party campaigners”. The rules for non-party campaigners have been changed by the Transparency of Lobbying, Non-Party Campaigning and Trade Union Administration Act 2014.

At the seminar we will explain the changes and you will be able to ask questions.

When and where is the seminar?

Tuesday 30 September 2014 from 10:30 – 12:30 at Northern Ireland Council for Voluntary Action (NICVA), 61 Duncairn Gardens, Belfast BT15 2GB.

How do I register to attend?
